Dear Don,

What a shame I was out of town when you phoned. It would have been fun to have a visit. I really appreciate your taking the time to call and your good words in support of my current endeavors.

This isn't quite the Navy I grew accustomed to for 30 years, but it is indeed exciting. I'm thoroughly enjoying it and I'm grateful to our classmate for the opportunity.

I was in L.A. the day after you called here giving a talk to the Aerospace Division of the Chamber of Commerce. If I get back that way again, I'll try to give you a call and say hello. In the meantime, again many thanks and all the best.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
